

Chris Williams

Director of Client Relationships

Don't be fooled by the British accent – Chris moved from New York to Chicago and now heads up Root's Chicago team. Chris is a strategic change expert, with a particular passion for culture transformation and strategic onboarding. He has worked with a large range of global and local organizations on initiatives such as enterprise strategy deployment, operational excellence, IT transformation, and culture change. Chris speaks regularly at human resources, learning and development, change management, and onboarding conferences and is considered an energy amplifier in group facilitation environments.
